Position available:

Food Scientist/Technologist/business development (max 1-year contract)

The successful candidate will work with A/P Liu Shao Quan on Development and Commercialization of fermented okara products under a project on Bioprocessed okara for value-added, diabetic-friendly health food products.
The main responsibilities of the position include

- Development of bio-transformed okara into food and beverage prototypes.
- Engage industry partners for upscaling and commercializing prototypes

Qualifications / Discipline:
BSc (Hons)/MSc in Food Science/Technology or a closely related discipline. Ability to work independently. Proficiency in English, with good writing and interpersonal communication skills.

Experience:
Experience with product development/flavor applications is highly advantageous.

Interested candidate please email your CV to A/P Liu Shao Quan, fstlsq@nus.edu.sg